

Please do not take away our rights to listen to Satellite Radio. This is being driven by a very self interested group NAB that will not make their programming responsive to our needs but wish to stop a very high tech usable radio programming that we love. There is room for this competition to make everyone better.Thanks

Dave Lewis